

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS MAJOR IN ACCOUNTING

TOP 5% OF ACCOUNTING PROGRAMS WORLDWIDE

With a major in accounting you are positioned for a career as a strategic business partner with the ability to collect, organize, and analyze financial information to help companies make smart business decisions. Our graduates go on to successful careers as accountants, financial analysts, controllers and business leaders.

In addition to your accounting coursework, you will graduate from U of I with a strong business foundation, grow your communication skills, and have hands-on experiences that prepare you for your first career after graduation!

- Get involved with Beta Alpha Psi, the global accounting honors society that allows you to network with industry professionals.
- Volunteer with the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program (VITA), helping local fixed and low-income families on their taxes, in partnership with students at the U of I College of Law.
- Attend the Accounting Careers Fair, an opportunity for you to connect early each fall semester with employers from across the Pacific Northwest who are specifically hiring for interns and new graduates in Accounting.
- Prepare to earn your CPA by completing U of I's Masters of Accountancy (MAcc) degree in just one year after finishing your undergraduate coursework.
- Want to get more out of your time at U of I? Accounting students are eligible to earn their MAcc at the same time as law school. That's three degrees in seven years!
