TRACTOR DRIVING CONTEST

Supervisors: Alan Heikkila (FFA)

Daniel Heikkila (FFA)

Meeting Time:

Participants meet Saturday, August 17 at 12:30 p.m. - Contest at 1:00 p.m.

Location: West of the Sheep Barn or Dairy Ring, TBA.

Purpose:

This contest provides each contestant with opportunities to demonstrate knowledge of tractor care and maintenance, skills at tractor handling, and understanding of machinery safety. The results of this event are a tribute to the members, the parents, the leaders, and the entire FFA and 4-H programs.

Pre-Contest Meeting:

All participants and judges will meet before the contest for the purpose of becoming familiarized with the rules of the contest, the driving courses and the equipment to be used in the contest.

Scoring:

The penalty scoring system will be used. Violations of rules will draw penalty points for the contestant. The contestant with the lowest score will be the winner.

Awards:

Trophies will be awarded by The Western Idaho Fair to:

- 1-5 Individual Trophies - 4-H and FFA (combined)
- 1-5 Individual Trophies – Adult

General Rules and Information:

- Trophies will be awarded to the first through fifth high individual.
- 4-H and FFA will be competing together.
- The contest will consist of one Four-Wheel Driving event. This consists of a tractor pulling a four-wheel trailer or implement.
- Contestants need not make application to The Western Idaho Fair office but merely meet at the show arena the time and day of the contest.
- Adult Division for anyone not eligible for 4-H and FFA. Any adult including AG teachers and Extension Educators can compete for awards. The number of adults may be limited on a first come, first serve basis. Trophies will be awarded to first through fifth high individuals.

DEPARTMENT J31
LARGE LIVESTOCK JUDGING
CONTEST (4-H & FFA)

Supervisors:

FFA Contest: Trish Stokes, Zach Putzier

4-H Contest: Lisa Martello

FFA Entry: Friday, August 16 – 9:00 am in Farnum Show Ring.

4-H Entry: All individual and group entries are due by August 1 by returning entry form (in this book) to the Ada County Extension Office 5880 Glenwood, Boise. No 4-H entries will be accepted the day of the contest

Registration: Friday, August 16, 8:30 a.m.

4-H - All club members from the surrounding Treasure Valley area may enter the judging contest. Counties sending teams must call the fair premium office (208-287-5663) by August 1 to request admission passes for members wanting to participate that are not exhibitors. Each member will judge individually. Teams of four need be designated at registration. Individual entries are still welcomed and will be grouped with other individuals to form a team. Team awards will be awarded to the designated teams set up at registration. Cloverbuds and adults are all welcome to participate but are not eligible for any of the awards. The age categories are Cloverbuds - 5-7, Junior - 8-13 and Senior - 14-18. This is the age of the individual on January 1 of the current year. The livestock contest will start at 9:00 a.m. with registration at 8:30 and will include beef, sheep, and swine. The dairy contest will follow the livestock contest and will include dairy cattle and dairy goats. All Junior and Senior participants will give oral reasons on one livestock class that is announced. The reasons will be given after the dairy contest and should be under 2 minutes in length. All reasons will be scored, the reasons scores will count towards the overall score for individuals or teams. The awards ceremony for the 4-H judging contest will be Friday, August 16, 2:30 p.m. in ring 3 (sheep arena). Since this is a State qualifying contest for Ada County teams, only those giving oral reasons will be on the Ada County team going to the State 4-H Livestock Judging Contest held at the Eastern Idaho State Fair in Blackfoot on August 30 - September 7, 2024.

FFA – FFA Chapters may enter livestock and dairy judging teams with five members per team. Any individual or team who has previously won a State FFA judging contest or participated in a national contest in the respective area will not be eligible to judge for awards. FFA Judging Teams must be accompanied by their Advisor to eligible for competition. Please RSVP to Trish Stokes – stokes.patricia@westada.org by the Thursday evening before (August 15) so we can have an accurate count for cards. Park next to Hawks Stadium and enter at the livestock gate.

Individual awards will be as follows for both contests:
1st - $9.00, 2nd - $8.00, 3rd - $7.00,
4th - $6.00, 5th - $5.00, 6th - $4.00

Plaques (one per team) will be presented by The Western Idaho Fair to:

- 1) 4-H – 1st to 3rd Senior Team – Dairy
- 2) 4-H – 1st to 3rd Junior Team – Dairy
- 3) 4-H – 1st to 3rd Senior Team – Livestock
- 4) 4-H – 1st to 3rd Junior Team – Livestock
- 5) FFA – 1st to 3rd Team – Dairy

DEPARTMENT J32
Division 1
Ada County 4-H & FFA Large
Livestock Round Robin

Supervisors:
Trish Stokes (FFA Advisor)
Zach Putzier (FFA Advisor)

Award Presentation for Large Livestock

August 19, Monday – 5:30 p.m., Farnum Show Ring
Between Junior and Senior 4-H Round Robin.

Large Livestock Round Robin will only be open to Ada and Canyon County 4-H or FFA members. Exception: Dairy showmen participating in the Treasure Valley Dairy Heifer Replacement Program are eligible for Round Robin.

You are responsible to show in the round robin UNLESS you notify the supervisor otherwise. If you do not wish to participate or are not eligible because you have won before, please notify your supervisor so that they can fill the spot. If you are eligible to participate in more than one species, you must choose one species and notify your supervisors of your decision. If no notification is given, you will forfeit your awards and premiums.

Dress Code:

All 4-H participants must wear a white collared shirt or blouse, clean dark pants, and closed toe and heel shoes. The exception to this will be the 4-H horse showmanship winner, who may wear their respective discipline dress, i.e., Western or English attire and 4-H dairy showmanship winner, who may wear appropriate dairy show attire.

All FFA members must be in official showmanship dress, i.e., White dress shirt, black pants, black shoes, FFA tie or scarf, and FFA jacket, dairy winner may wear official FFA dairy show attire. A decision will be made as to the jacket by the FFA supervisor based on the temperature and safety of participants.

Failure to wear appropriate dress may disqualify you from participation in round robin.

Method of scoring:

Sweepstakes scoring method will be used for scoring. Contestants will be scored on each species and then ranked according to score. The lowest ranking will be the winner. In case of ties: each contestant's own specie will be eliminated. If a tie still remains, an additional specie will be drawn, and the winner will be based on the lowest ranking of that specie (whoever did the best). Contestant's scoring will be based on knowledge questions provided to the judges by the supervisors and their showmanship abilities. Contestants will be required to wear numbers for identification.

The animal the contestant won with must be used. Heat, safety, and unforeseen conditions will constitute a substitution by the individual specie supervisor.

Junior Round Robin Showmanship: (Large Livestock)

August 19, Monday - 4:00 p.m., Ring 1, 2 & 3.

The Junior Champion and Reserve Champion Showman in Beef, Llama/Alpaca, Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goat, Meat Goat, Sheep, Swine, and Horse will compete in this Round Robin Showmanship Contest. A Junior Champion and Junior Reserve Champion will be selected. Previous Grand Champions of The Western Idaho Fair Junior Large Livestock Round Robin will be eligible to compete only in future Senior Round Robins for Champion and Reserve Champion Senior Showman.

The Western Idaho Fair and Ada County Farm Bureau will award a trophy to the Champion and Reserve Champion.

Senior Round Robin Showmanship: (Large Livestock)

August 19, Monday - 5:00 p.m., Farnum Show Ring.

The Champion Showman and Reserve Champion in Beef, Dairy Cattle, Llama/Alpaca, Dairy Goat, Meat Goat, Sheep, Swine, and Horse will compete in this Round Robin Showmanship Contest. A Champion and Reserve Champion will be selected.

Anyone previously winning Grand Champion at the Western Idaho Fair or The Western Idaho Fair Invitational Super Round Robin Contest for 4-H will not be eligible to participate in the Senior Round Robin Contest.

The Western Idaho Fair and Ada County Farm Bureau will award a trophy to the Champion and Reserve Champion.

FFA Round Robin Showmanship: (Large Livestock)

August 19, Monday - 6:00 p.m.

FFA exhibitors must have completed the 9th grade to be eligible for Round Robin. FFA participants must have received a blue ribbon in Showmanship to be eligible for Round Robin.

The Champion and Reserve Champion Showman in Beef, Dairy Cattle, Dairy Goat, Meat Goat, Swine, Sheep, Llama/Alpaca and Horse will compete in a Round Robin Showmanship Contest. (There must be three EXHIBITORS in each DEPARTMENT to qualify for participation in the Round Robin.) A Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion will be selected.

Anyone previously winning a FFA Grand Champion Round Robin Showman at the Western Idaho Fair or The Western Idaho Fair will not be eligible to participate. The Grand Champion will be eligible to participate in the Super Round Robin Contest.

The Western Idaho Fair and Ada County Farm Bureau will award a trophy to the Champion and Reserve Champion.
